

What is the Application Procedure for requesting information?

What is the time limit to get the information?

What is the fee?

What could be the ground for rejection?

What is the Application Procedure for requesting information?

Apply in writing or through electronic means in English or Hindi or in the official language of the area, to the particulars of the information sought for. Reason for seeking information are not required to be given, except in the case of life and liberty information, which shall be prescribed (if not belonging to the below poverty line category).

What is the time limit to get the information?

30 days from the date of receipt of the application for information concerning the life and liberty of a person shall be the time limit for response. 48 hours for information concerning the life and liberty of a person shall be added to the above response time, in case the application for information is given to the Information Officer. If the interests of a third party are involved then time limit will be 40 days (maximum 5 days shall be added to the above response time, in case the application for information is given to the Information Officer. If the interests of a third party are involved then time limit will be 40 days (maximum 5 days shall be added to the above response time, in case the application for information is given to the Information Officer. Failure to provide information within the specified period is a breach of the law.

What is the fee?

Application fees to be prescribed which must be reasonable. If further fees are required, then the same must be prescribed in writing with calculation details of how the figure was arrived at; Applicant can seek review of the fee charged by the PIO by applying to the appropriate Appellate Authority; No fees will be charged from people below the poverty line Applicant must be provided information free of cost if the PIO fails to comply with the prescribed time limit.

What could be the ground for rejection?

If it is covered by exemption from disclosure. (S.8) If it infringes copyright of any person other than the State.

<https://egov.goa.nic.in/rtipublic/requestforinf.aspx>